

KOSSUTH COUNTY REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES
JULY 26, 2021

The Kossuth County Republican Central Committee met Monday, July 26, 2021, at the Thul Shed, with 16 people in attendance. Chairperson, Carter Nath, welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order at 6:28 p.m. Ray Neswold opened the meeting with prayer and then Carter led everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Upcoming parades in the Kossuth County area for the Republican float:

1. Kossuth County Fair, August 3, 6 p.m.
2. Algona Band Day, October 2, 1 p.m.

Carter will contact Kyle Stecker regarding his availability to pull the float in the Kossuth County Fair parade.

Set-up for the Kossuth County Fair Republican booth will take place Monday, August 2, and Tuesday, August 3 by 3 p.m. Everyone is invited to come help with the set-up. Also, volunteers are needed to staff the booth each day of the Fair from noon-8 p.m. each day. Anyone who is interested in helping staff the Fair booth for a two hour time slot please contact Carter Nath: kossuthchaircarter@gmail.com. Carter will contact the radio station for an interview time during the Fair.

Carter then led discussion on the NationBuilder program, a platform offered by the Republican Party of Iowa, to help local Republican organizations with fundraising, communication, etc. Before making a decision to participate in this program, the general consensus was that more information is needed. Carter will invite George Anderson to a future meeting for further education on this topic.

Carter introduced State Senator, Dennis Guth, who stated that 300-500 people attended the nationwide Freedom Rally in Des Moines on Saturday, July 24. He also stated that a group of legislators are working on legislation to insure the citizens' freedom regarding certain mandates, but this will take time. Everyone is invited to contact Gov. Kim Reynolds regarding the topic of one reason that government exists is to protect the God-given rights and freedoms of its citizens. The phone number for Gov. Reynolds is: 515-281-5211.

Carter reported that 80-100 people participated in the Algona Freedom Rally on July 24, and expressed appreciation for them.
